REQUEST FOR FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID PROBATION – GRADUATE

STUDENT NAME:  (last)____________________________  (first)____________________________

STUDENT RIN: ____________________________  DATE: ____________________________

This form gives you the opportunity to appeal the loss of Federal aid eligibility (i.e. Federal Direct Loans, Federal Graduate PLUS loan, and Perkins loan) for failure to make Federal Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) due to unusual circumstances. If your request is approved you will be granted Financial Aid Probation. If your request is denied, you will not be eligible to receive federal financial aid mentioned above until you regain SAP.

Your program of study determines how many Financial Aid Probations you may receive and for how long a period of time. Master’s programs less than 36 credit hours may only receive one Financial Aid Probation lasting no more than one semester. Master’s programs greater than 36 credits are allowed two (2) Financial Aid Probation statuses, with, with each one lasting no more than two semesters in length. Doctoral programs are may receive one Federal Financial Aid Probation, lasting no longer than two semesters in length.

Your appeal must include the following:

1. In addition to this completed form, you MUST submit a signed academic plan outlining what you will do each semester while on the academic plan. You must meet the objectives of the plan and regain Good Standing by the end of the plan or you will lose federal aid eligibility. For information about the designated individual in your school to assist you in your academic plan, contact your Graduate Program Director in your academic unit.

2. The reason(s) why you were unable to attain Satisfactory Academic Progress. Be sure to complete Sections A + B of this form. Examples include difficulties in a program of study requiring you to change your major, personal difficulties, or you or a family member had a serious illness.

   If your reason includes you had a serious illness, you must provide proof such as a doctor’s note, hospital record, etc. Medical reasons will be evaluated by the RPI Health Center to determine if the medical reason warrants consideration.

It is your responsibility to provide complete documentation supporting your request. You MUST submit all documentation at the same time. Please be sure to put your name and RIN on any documents you provide. If we do not receive your request for Financial Aid Probation within THREE WEEKS from the start of the next semester you are enrolled, any federal aid awarded will be rescinded for the term(s) you are not making SAP.

Failure to follow these guidelines will result in automatic denial and thus loss of federal aid eligibility. We will respond to you via your Rensselaer email regarding the result of your request.

Section A: Please describe why you were unable to attain Federal Satisfactory Academic Progress (attach additional paper if necessary).

Section B: Please provide an explanation on the steps you will take to regain SAP (attach additional paper if necessary). You MUST attach an approved academic plan from the designated individual within your school.

SECTION C: STATEMENT OF CERTIFICATION – I have reviewed the graduate student Federal Satisfactory Academic Progress policies. The information provided on this form is true and accurate.
